

As a computer user for over 20 years and a taxpayer, I resent SPAM and believe that the comment line of ALL advertizements should include the an identifyable code OR any corporation or individual that sends solicitations should be limited to ONE user/domain name.